JUDITH THOMAS

Plaintiff,

v.

MANN BRACKEN, LLP

Defendants.

CLERK'S OFFICE
AT BALTIMORE

BY _____ CORY L. ZAJDEL

Case No. 1:09-CV-03440-ELH

NOTICE OF DISMISSAL

Plaintiff Judith Thomas, by and through her attorney Cory L. Zajdel of Z LAW, LLC, hereby dismisses the above captioned matter without prejudice under FED. R. CIV. P. 41(a)(1) and for support alleges and states as follows:

1. Plaintiff Judith Thomas filed this action against Mann Bracken, LLP and Midland Funding, LLC on December 24, 2009. Docket #1.
2. On March 31, 2010, Plaintiff Thomas dismissed the action with prejudice as against Defendant Midland Funding, LLC. Docket #11.
3. The only remaining Defendant is Mann Bracken, LLP.
4. Defendant Mann Bracken, LLP entered its appearance through its Court appointed receiver on April 12, 2010. Docket #15.
5. It is Plaintiff Thomas' understanding that all assets of Mann Bracken, LLP will be distributed amongst its creditors through the receivership estate.
6. Plaintiff Thomas is satisfied that her claim and proof of claim filed in the receivership action pending in the Circuit Court of Maryland for Montgomery County establishes her right to recover from Defendant Mann Bracken, LLP.

7. To date, Mann Bracken, LLP and/or the Court appointed receiver has not filed an Answer or a Motion for Summary Judgment.

8. Plaintiff Judith Thomas hereby gives notice that she dismisses the above captioned matter without prejudice.

Respectfully submitted,

Z LAW, LLC
